Keynote Speaker: Adam Creighton

Economics Editor, The Australian Newspaper

Topic: Fixing Australia

Coalition returned to Government by a miracle, but with a lack of farsighted ideas to lift incomes and productivity.

Grow the economy to shrink the debt. Superannuation costs the Government a fortune.

No other G20 nation bans nuclear energy. Renewable energy unsustainable without baseload power.

Income tax reform now to stimulate economic activity. Achieve reforms that help ordinary people.

No bureaucratic inquiries required to lift income and productivity.

Adam Creighton has a vision for Australia's economic and social development.

How Government can make life better for most Australians.

Adam Creighton is an award-winning journalist with a special interest in tax and financial policy. He was a Journalist in Residence at the University of Chicago's Booth School of Business in 2019. He's written for The Economist and The Wall Street Journal from London and Washington DC, and authored book chapters on superannuation for Oxford University Press. He began his career at the Reserve Bank of Australia and the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority. He holds a Bachelor of Economics with First Class Honours from the University of New South Wales, and Master of Philosophy in Economics from Balliol College, Oxford, where he was a Commonwealth Scholar.
