FORUM

Keynote Speaker: Mr Tshung Chang

Topic: Silent Invasion: China's Influence in Western Australia.

Recently, when referring to China's bans on Australian barley, lobster, coal, wine and timber, in an address to the Australian China Business Council, Mr Graham Fletcher, Australia's Ambassador to China said "I'm not sure China realises the damage that is occurring both in Australia and internationally".

The evidence is that for decades China has pursued a plan of influence through the Chinese Communist Party (CCP) United Front Work Department, particularly in WA.

Who is going to call out the CCP? It seems no WA politician or business person has the courage to do so. Tshung Chang will outline who the actors are and how they influence Cultural Institutions, Media, Political Parties and Education Institutions in Western Australia and will also expose a number of scary incidences.

The conclusion is "The great evil here is ignorance."

Profile of Tshung Chang – Company director. Graduate of Hollywood Senior high School, the University of Western Australia (Bachelor of Commerce) and the Chinese University of Hong Kong.

Mr Chang's career spans 25 years with corporates in Perth, Sydney and Hong Kong.

He played a key role in franchise development of several major Australian corporations in North Asia.

As well as being bilingual in Chinese/English Mr Chang has significant experience in mining/resources financing, credit ratings, debt and capital raising, asset and risk management with deep expertise across the Asia-Pacific region. Mr Chang has written and spoken extensively about the unhealthy interference and influence of the CCP in Australia.
